STROOD, KENT

A HISTORIC TOWN, IMPRESSIVELY PLACED

Temple Wharf is surrounded by wonderful amenities and attractions, all set within the superb location of Strood and close to the serene and picturesque riverside of the Medway.

This exciting town boasts a colourful history from magnificent Roman roads to medieval castles, and Strood's excellent transport links mean you are never far from a great day out. Enviably placed within a mile of desirable Rochester, you will find a plethora of countryside attractions close to home.

Strood is close to an excellent selection of restaurants and bistros. Dress up for an evening of fine dining at the wonderful Don Vincenzo or sample the mouth-watering menu at Topes Restaurant. On your doorstep you'll find a wealth of family favourites, Frankie and Benny's and Chiquitos with an attractive wine bar are all waiting for you.

Your new home is near to a wealth of local amenities from large supermarkets to artisan delicatessens, butchers and bakers, offering everything you need for the week ahead. Strood enjoys a charming weekly market which offers fresh produce and arts and crafts. Alternatively, indulge in a day of shopping at Bluewater Shopping Centre or head into London for eye-catching designer brands and forward-thinking fashion.

For family days out, look no further than bowling at Hollywood Bowl, catch a film at the nearby Cineworld or visit the historic Chatham Dockyard and discover how ships including the HMS Victory were designed and built.

Temple Wharf is located perfectly on the River Medway. Dust off the cobwebs and take a stroll down the newly renovated riverside walkways or take a fitness class at the Nuffield Health Fitness and Wellbeing Gym, just a stone's throw from your front door.

Excellence is a key feature of Strood and the surrounding areas. You will find an array of impressive nurseries and primary schools including the Ofsted-rated outstanding St Nicholas Infant School leading to the Strood Academy. The prestigious University of Kent in Canterbury is approximately 38 minutes away by car.

EXCELLENTLY CONNECTED

TO DESTINATIONS FROM YOUR DOORSTEP

Temple Wharf is approximately ten minutes from Strood train station from where you can be central London in around 33 minutes, enjoying the delights on offer in the capital from theatre in the West End to Michelin star restaurants. Travel to Bluewater Shopping Centre for some retail therapy, which is approximately 19 minutes by train. The road links are equally impressive with excellent access to the M2 making journeys towards the M25 and historic Canterbury a breeze.

Head for a day by the sea with picturesque Whitstable only 45 minutes away or get to Dover in less than an hour for frequent ferries to the continent. The vibrant European cities of Paris, Brussels and Amsterdam, to name but a few are just a Eurostar train away, all accessed via Ebbsfleet International which is a mere 15 minute journey from home.
